STAN'S SOAPBOX

Hi, Heroes!
Who wants to win a frankly fictitious Frammatat complete with one megabyte of RAM and driver's side air bag? All you have to do is answer a question that's been plaguing me for years, namely: Why in the name of Wolverine's manicurist can't the world's greatest comic book company ever get a date right? And if that doesn't whet your candescent curiosity then poor ol' Stan has lost his tender touch!

Let me elucidate. A few months ago I wrote a Soapbox column touting the famous San Diego Comic Con which was held during the July 4th holiday, suggesting that you attend it if you could. So far so good, right? Wrong! The column was supposed to appear in the Marvel mags which went on sale in June, to give those wanting to attend the Con enough time to make their travel plans. So what happened? We cleverly managed to print the Soapbox in titles that went on sale AFTER the Con was over!

Of course, no blushing Bullpenner will ever admit that Marvel can err, so this is to announce that it really wasn't a mistake! We were simply advertising NEXT year's San Diego Con, and doing it twelve months early!

Y'know, the reason we started awarding no-prizes to readers who discovered mistakes in our mags is that we made so many of them that our only recourse was to make a game of it! Which means it's time for a brand-new no-prize contest! I will proudly award some exclusive, frost-free no-prizes, complete with woofers and tweeters, to the Marvel maniacs who submit the best slogan describing our peculiar propensity for fantastic foul-ups! To get you started, here's the Bone-headed Boo-Boos! Now, hey, don't tell me you can't come up with a better one than that! But you'll really have to search for the winning entries -- we'll probably print 'em in the wrong mag!

Excelsior!

Stan Lee

It's October, so it's time once again for creepies, crawlies, and things that go bump in the night. That's right -- it's that time of year once again when our editor in chief Tom DeFalco cleans out his refrigerator!

It's also Halloween season -- a time for facades, ruses, and masks. A time for deceptions, tricks, treats, Shams, scams, and hams (sorry -- it's lunch time). A time to pretend to be something you're not. As our old friend Mr. Rogers might have put it, it's time to ride that little trolley into the land of make-believe.

In the world of comics, everyone has a secret identity (in fact, the comic strip character Cathy is actually Ziggy in drag). And many comics creators share similar fantasies of wanting to dress up like their four-color fantasy figures. So for this Halloween edition of the BB, we decided to ask the Marvel Comics creative people this question: If you could be anyone or anything for Halloween this year, what would you be?

Peter David, of INCREDIBLE HULK fame, said "I'd like to be the person who gets to ask these stupid questions, instead of answer them." Peter asked us to mention that on Halloween, he gives out comics instead of candy. As he puts it, "I firmly believe in rotting a kid's brain instead of his teeth!"

SHIELD inker Don Hudson said, "I would be the Riddler, and I would have two guys accompanying me, with names written on their shirts like Chuckles and Chortles."

AMAZING SPIDER-MAN's David Michelinie chose a more horrific disguise. "I would be Fabian Nicieza. He writes five books a month, and that's scary!"

Roy Thomas, who's currently writing more CONAN than human beings should be allowed to read, said, "I'd like to be the owner of the Chicago Cubs so I could trade for a few good pitchers."

Michael Higgins, who's lettered so many AKIRA pages he's started wearing a kimono, said, "I'd be a member of the Grateful Dead."

Spider-Man villains are a popular choice this year. WEB OF SPIDER-MAN penciler Alex Saviuk said, "I'd like to be the Hobgoblin, who I happen to be drawing at the moment. I think it would be a neat visual. But considering my build, I think I would do better as the Kingpin! But I would have to shave my head!"

Writer without fear Dan Chichester would also like to be the Kingpin -- "while there's still time!" Dan noted that the Kingpin is about to take a great fall over in the pages of his DAREDEVIL series.

Mike Mignola, of FAFHRD AND THE GRAY MOUSER fame, said "I would like to be a winged monkey from the Wizard of Oz!" Mike was working on his costume even as we spoke, so don't be surprised to see him flying by your window this October 31!

ALPHA FLIGHT's artist in residence Tom Morgan told us "I'd like to be a Florida boat bum named Travis McGee."

Mark Bagley, currently knocking them dead on both AMAZING SPIDER-MAN and NEW WARRIORS artwork, said "I want to be Doc Ock, because I need the four extra arms to keep up with my deadlines!"

Editor Mike Rockwitz said he would be Petrus Steele of thrash metal group Type O Negative fame.

MARVEL AGE's own Mike Lackey echoed Mike Rockwitz's sentiments, saying he would be the grind-core thrash group, Gwar. Not just one member of the group, but the entire group! No small thinker, that Mike Lackey!

Editor Craig Anderson, currently preparing to launch an all-new ADAM WARLOCK series with writer Jim Starlin, said he would be "Kim Basinger's bicycle seat."

Glenn Herdling, who is No Longer Submissions Editor (but is editing the new NOMAD series), said he would like to be "a whispering wind, so I can travel over land and sea, unobstructed, to many a foreign country. Either that, or Fred Flintstone."

Glenn's assistant, Pat Garrahy -- who may or may not be the New Submissions Editor (he asked us not to say, he's waiting for an appeal) said, "I want to be a movie star like Bugs Bunny or Kermit the Frog."

The PUNISHER's pal, Mike Baron, said he would like to be ballet star Mikhail Baryshnikov, because "he's got just the right amount of fame. He's unlikely to be mobbed when he goes out in public, but he's well-known in cultural circles."

Todd McFarlane, who formerly held the record for writing, drawing, and inking the best-selling comic of all time, said "I would like to be the president/owner of my own hockey trading card company, so I can tell people what to do instead of having to listen to my editor!"

Ron Lim, perhaps best known for running the INFINITY GAUNTLET earlier this year, said "I would be Kwai Chang Caine, from the Kung Fu TV series, with a group of traveling monks!"

Finally, we have ALPHA FLIGHT scripter Scott Lobdell, who said that if he could be anyone or anything for Halloween, he would be "the God of Comics for one day." Now who among us hasn't wished for that one at least once in his life?
